Appreciation Letter

Dear Sumit,

We appreciate your efforts and sincerity in successfully handling HMEL project. We are glad to share that with your constant endeavours and support; we have been able to achieve this productively.

The endless hours that you have spent making up to your commitment, is commendable. Your diligence, self-motivation and dedication have been a source of inspiration for the rest of the team members.

We consider you as a backbone of the Organization and are pleased to count you as a part of the Company. We believe that with your incessant support and valuable contribution, we would continue achieving desired results.

You are undoubtedly an integral member of Team Simulanis, and we immensely value your contributions in the projects you have worked on. Your dedication towards your role is exemplary and we envisage you to play a significant role in our expansion as we march towards a future filled with exciting promise.

We expect you to continue with your hard work and keep adding to the Company's success.

Wish you all the best!

Yours Sincerely

Sakshi Kalia
